

CHAPCA REGULATORY 2008 SIDE-BY-SIDE COMPARISON ORDER YOURS TODAY!

This 154 page, side-by-side comparison document was developed by the California Hospice & Palliative Care Association to assist hospice programs with adapting to the new Hospice Conditions of Participation, which were published in the Federal Register on June 5, 2008 and become effective on December 2, 2008.

The document presents the new Conditions in a side-by-side format with existing standards and regulations, including:

- 2008 Federal Conditions of Participation
- California Standards of Quality Hospice Care, 2003, which serve in California as the licensing regulations for hospice licensed programs
- Title 22, Division 5, Home Health Agencies
- Federal and State Regulations

It is important to note that the state statutes and regulations presented within the document are current as of September 1, 2008. A hospice that is licensed and certified in California must comply with all applicable state and federal regulations.

This spiral-bound book will be an invaluable resource for hospice programs. Consider ordering multiple copies to distribute among your key staff members.
